CANTILLON MAKES OFFER FOR LAPORTE AND EEMPHILL

Special to The Washington Herald. Detroit, Mich., May 13.-Chief Stallings to-day received an offer from Joe Cantillon, of the Washington club, to buy Charley Hemphili and Frank Laporte. After a consultation, Frank Farrell and Stallings wired Cantillon the terms on which such a deal can be executed. Stallings refuses to say anything for publication, but it is the general belief that he is willing to part with Hemphill and Laporte for a cash consideration and Pitcher Burns. It is well known that Stallings made several futile efforts to land Burns in some kind of a deal last winter, McFarland Allows Petworth but Three Hits and Fans Five. Parkview was too much for Petworth yesterday in the Suburban League and trimmed them, 8 to 3.

McFarland did the flinging for the winners, and but three bingles were collected off his delivery, while five of the opposing team were sent back to the bench 197 after having been baffled by his twisters. Maddox and Stevenson led at bat with two hits apiece, they being the only players to hit safely more than once.

The winners played better in the field than the Petworth tribe, batted better, and outclassed them all around, Score:

St. Martin's Team Wins in Marquette League.

PITCHER GREENE FANS 13

McCarthy, for Winners, Bats Out a Home Run with Two on the Bases. Smith Makes a Sensational Catch. Pension Team Plays Errorless Ball-Final Score Is 5 to 3,

St. Martin's defeated Pension Office yesterday in the Marquette League, 5 to 3, the Churchmen having the team from Uncle Sam's big office blanked until the last round.

Green was manager Bridges' choice to toe the rubber and the Indian was in fine fettle, scalping thirteen of the opposite tribe and keeping his opponents' hits scattered to the four winds. Two passed Pet. 500 balls by Catcher Smith in the last round allowed three of the Pension Office boys to step across the plate, otherwise they would never have reached a smelling distance. Outside of the three passed balls charged up to the catchers, Smith and Mace, their work was of the gilt-edged variety, not a man stealing a base during the whole game. Smith made a back hand catch of Kelliher's foul fly in the first inning that aroused the spectators.

McCarthy gamboled about in the left garden like he owned the place, and didn't miss a thing that came his way during the eight innings. His put-out record for the day was four, and when it is considered that they were hard chances, his day's work was creditable. Woertendye was also on the job in center field for the losing team, and at the bat made one of the best hits the Pension team got during the day. In the fourth inning, the Pension Office nine was retired on three pitched balls, a blow to the pitcher and two flys to the outfield St. Martin's made three in the opening session, just by way of being sociable, McCarthy trying to see how far he could knock the ball in the left garden with two on bases. He evidently broke the record for the last seen of the ball it was sailing down W street with the The losers played well in the field, and both teams made some brilliant plays.
